Hotwell Tanks

We have extensive knowledge in designing, manufacturing and installing feed water tanks. By getting simple factors correct such as feed water temperature, condensate distribution and effective efficiency measures, money can be saved on ever rising fuel costs.

Blowdown Receivers

The correct sizing and manufacture of a blowdown receiver is essential. McEwen Boilermakers manufacture our vessels to the latest Pressure Equipment Regulations. They are custom built to match individual customer requirements, and are finished to a high standard, complete with builder's plate.

Chimneys and Flues

We can manufacture a large variety of shapes and sizes of industrial chimney, in a variety of materials. These are designed to the latest industry standards and can be installed by our engineers, who work closely with lifting specialists to ensure installations are carried out with safety at the forefront of what we do.

"I feel it appropriate to write following the installation of our new boiler. Not only does the boiler look excellent it also further reflects the professionalism of Moorhouses Brewery. Your installation team of engineers deserve nothing but praise for the work they carried out."
